President's Patter

Hello Readers.

Well, a month has gone by with very little Covid interruptions, At least here in the wonderful West!

I have previously mentioned the completion of 2 community programs. Namely the archery board stands and the nesting boxes.

Next Monday (31st) we are involved with another community program. A few members will be cutting multiple pieces of timber for the Sawyers Valley Primary School and, spending time on Tuesday, the 2nd, at the school helping the visiting children construct 'noughts and crosses' games.

These tasks fall to very busy members. Most of whom are committee members, with one or two other members. Gentlemen, there are many similar tasks that could be shared, if only you could help for a couple of hours a week!

As requested in previous Reports, your help is really needed. I know we receive donations of tools, etc. from you and your contacts, which is great. But 'going the extra mile' (1.609 km) would be greater from those whom are capable.

Unseen by most members is the amazing amount of organizing work done by Ross.

Just last week the Committee agreed to lessen the load on Ross, by some members taking on Shed paperwork, while he concentrates on the new complex. A lot of the frustration is lack of help from tardy Governments. Technically we should have been about a third of the way with the buildings by now. Let's also not forget Max and others who are also involved in the planning processes.

Finally, Neil is carrying two jobs. Number one, the treasure's position.

Number two, the catering task, basically we need someone to set up the 'goodies' for morning tea. Tuesday and Thursday are our main socialising times, the other 3 days can be worked out by the attending 'shedders'.

To close, we have great camaraderie gentlemen. Let's continue, especially concentrating on wellness.

Brian Mathews.

p.s. Please attend the Speakers Circle on Wednesday morning, to find out what a 'stobie pole' is from our guest speaker, Leo Higgins. Followed by morning tea in the Hub dining area.

What am I for?

Looking back a few years,

WRINKLY RAG.

FEBRUARY 2016

A REQUEST TO ALL MEMBERS

The Wrinkly Rag is your newsletter and we need every member's input, where you were born, went to school, got married, started work, what you did, where you travelled etc. Do you have a story to tell? Put pen to paper or compose an email and send it to the editor. A few lines will do or you can even write a few instalments.

We would also welcome jokes, adverts or even critiques if you're that way inclined.

DON'T LEAVE IT TO OTHERS, IT'S YOUR SHED, IT'S YOUR RAG.

Editor can be contacted on fox@wn.com.au (Stephen Fox.)

Funnies

I kept dreaming I was a muffler last night.

I woke up this morning, exhausted.

Grandad can never find his way to his allotment, we're starting to think he might have lost the plot.
